JACOB H. WILLIAMS

Jacob H. Williams focuses his practice in the area of commercial litigation and is admitted to the Hawaii State Bar.

Mr. Williams has been selected to the Hawaii Super Lawyers, Rising Star list in 2026, in the practice area of business litigation

Mr. Williams earned his Juris Doctor from Washington University School of Law. While in law school, Mr. Williams earned the Scholars in Law Award and was on the Dean's List. Mr. Williams was the Executive Notes Editor for the Washington University Jurisprudence Review, and was a Comparative Law teaching assistant for Judge Lech Garlicki. He participated in the Wiley Rutledge Moot Court Competition and was a member of the Energy & Environmental Law Society, Immigration Law Society and was Service Chair for the Christian Legal Fellowship.

Mr. Williams gained experience as a student attorney at the Washington University Interdisciplinary Environmental Clinic where he managed client communications and project initiatives, drafted notice letters and attended neighborhood meetings to educate potential plaintiffs about their legal rights.

As a summer associate, Mr. Williams researched, analyzed and synthesized case law and statutes for litigation matters, and submitted memos and reports and drafted procedural motions. He also assisted with transactional matters performing due diligence for complex mergers and acquisitions.
