

STARN • O'TOOLE • MARCUS & FISHER

A LAW CORPORATION

Associate

rbrown@starnlaw.com
808-537-6100

EDUCATION:

University of Hawaii, William S. Richardson, School of Law, J.D. (2014)

Co-Champion, Susan B. McKay Competition (2012, 2013)

Quarter-finalist, Manfred Lachs Space Law Moot Court Competition (2012, 2013)

University of Colorado at Boulder

B.A. Journalism/News Editorial (2009)

Second Team Big XII Academic-All-American

AREAS OF PRACTICE:

Civil Litigation

JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIP:

Judge John F. Stavely-Boulder County Court, 20th Judicial District

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:

Licensed to Practice Law in Hawaii State Courts

ROBERT J. BROWN

Mr. Brown focuses his practice in the area of civil litigation. He is admitted to the Hawaii Bar, and is admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii. Mr. Brown earned his Juris Doctor from William S. Richardson School of Law, University of Hawaii at Manoa.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Brown served as a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for the City & County of Honolulu. He prosecuted more than 20 felony jury trials on charges ranging from drug possession to murder.

Mr. Brown has been a guest lecturer at the William S. Richardson School of Law, where he taught the Space Law and Policy class. He interned at the Hawaii Office of Aerospace Development which exists to help further growth of space and aerospace industries in Hawaii.

In law school, Mr. Brown was a two-time "Co-Champion" of the Susan B. McKay Competition (2012, 2013), and a two-time quarter-finalist of the Manfred Lachs Space Law Moot Court Competition (2012, 2013).

Mr. Brown externed for Judge John F. Stavely, Boulder County Court, 20th Judicial District.

Mr. Brown attended the University of Colorado at Boulder where he earned his BA in Journalism and graduated from Punahou School. He has been a Big Brother, Big Sisters volunteer since 2012.